If your zipcode is 06903, you or your neighbors probably live in the part of Stamford once known as the Village of High Ridge. Be the first to explore the history of this fascinating neighborhood by attending our September 15th preview party.

The Stamford Historical Society's new exhibit will trace the development of the High Ridge community from its first settlement as an agrarian village in the late 1700s to the present. The exhibit will feature a large collection of photographic material as well as baskets, tools, agricultural artifacts, the original post office letterbox and other High Ridge materials and documents. Many thanks to Bartlett Tree Experts for underwriting the P.O. High Ridge exhibit and activities.
