Honoring Local Educator and Historian

TONY PAVIA

Mr. Pavia is currently the principal of New Canaan High School. For many years, he worked as an educator and administrator in the Stamford schools. He is the author of "An American Town Goes to War," a book based on oral histories of Stamford residents who participated in World War II. This book was invaluable in the creation of The Stamford Historical Society's 2006-2007 exhibit Pride and Patriotism: Stamford's Role in World War II.
